SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1751. [No. 11.

The History of Coralbano, begun in our laſt, concluded.

IT is a Maxim among the Coralbani, "That their Country can never be ruined and the Gaderime at the ſame time true to their Truſts." —— By which it may be underſtood, That the Strength of the People (honeſtly exerted) would be an Overmatch for any ſiniſter Attempts on their Liberties; from what Quarter ſoever thoſe Attempts might proceed, whether from the ſingle or even united Efforts of a miſled Diadelohim, an abject Bootiſali, or an arrogant Arihime.

"Another Maxim no leſs reigning in Coralbano is, "That the Power of the Diadelohim is meaſured by the Love of his People.

Of theſe political Axioms the Bootiſali (bred in the School of Corruption) could not be ſuppoſed ignorant. Tho' no great Genii at Diſcovery themſelves, they had good retentive Faculties: The inceaſed Coralbani indeed would ſcarcely allow them thoſe; tho' Properties even Horſes, Mules, Aſſes, &c. derive from the ſame natural Origin. But 'tis no wonder to ſee Provocation ſometimes excite Violence, and irritated Paſſions riſe too irregularly ſtrong to obey the more equal Rules of Judgment.— It will however be allowed by the moſt Impartial, that the Bootiſali poſſeſſed the common Gifts of thoſe Animals in no mean degree; and that only the Strength of the Horſe could be excepted; to compenſate which, they had an uncontrovertible Right to the Qualities of the Ape, the Wolf, the FOX, & the Barbary Tabbo or Chimpanzee.

"It would have been neceſſary, ſince the Mention of a School of Corruption, to have taken ſome notice of the firſt Erection and Endowments of ſuch a School, were it not that every intelligent Briton can make the Idea of its Inſtitution familiar, if he recollects what the Maltontents of his own Country uſed to ſay of the Adminiſtration of Sir Robert Walpole. As to it's particular Endowments, they are ſaid ſtill to remain impenetrably ſecret, and form what is called the Bootiſalian Arcana, that is, according to the Coralban Explanation, Secrets which are known to every-body.

"To return: The Maxims juſt hinted were almoſt inſurmountable Obſtacles in the Way of the aſpiring Bootiſali. The Gaderime muſt be corrupt, in the moſt abandon'd degree, to be innoxious: Acts of Unpopularity muſt be aſcribed to the Diadelohim to weaken his Power. Theſe were the preliminary Stages of Uſurpation, which were to be firſt paſſed ere they reached the ſupreme Summit of their Wiſhes.

"We have ſeen theſe Men in high Power and Capital Truſts; but, ſuch is the Nature of a rapacious Appetite, it enjoys but to crave, and the forbidden Food ever promiſes the luſcious Satiety. They could not be content with the real Adminiſtration of Government, with the uncontrollable Exerciſe of entruſted Power, or with the ſole Poſſeſſion of the Kabina, the Repoſitory of the Teraph: There was ſomething ſtill behind more enticing than all theſe: They muſt have —— but what, the Event will beſt ſhew.

"It muſt be acknowleged, wicked and weak as their Project will appear, it was probable and deeply founded. The Virtue of the People ſeem'd overwhelmed by the Luxury of the Times. Lured by the flattering a Criſis, 'twas not ſtrange to ſee Ambition tower; but it towered only to be giddy, and roſe the higher only to make its Fall more certain. But deſperate is the Condition of that State which inſpires, which invites Uſurpation! —— The Gaderime had been ſo uſed to the Worſhip of the Teraph, there ſeemed little Difficulty to make them even their own Executioners: Nor did the Arihime inſpire more Dread: If the Bootiſali did but diſplay the Idol of Adoration, theſe Pagans were proſtrate. But how effectually to depreciate the Diadelohim in the popular Eſtimation, they thought the moſt dangerous Paſs to the Citadel of their Hopes; and yet this Paſs muſt be gained, or thoſe Hopes periſh.

"They had no ſooner looked upon themſelves firmly eſtabliſhed in the Seat of Power, than they began the Practices of acquiring more. They ſaw the Diadelohim deeply entrenched in the Affection of his Subjects, and on each Side ſupported by a Son. In this Situation, a Thought, propitious to their Deſigns, occurred: They fancied, if they could but create a Rivalſhip in theſe Brothers, ſome advantageous Effect might be produced.

"For this good Purpoſe, Engines were immediately ſet to Work. The Scheme anſwered. The Eldeſt Son, who, by the Laws of Coralbano, is Heir to the Diadelohim and Clareth of the Cambrine, was a great Favourite of the People: And if they could but make theſe People think his royal Father did not treat this Prince with the parental Regard he did his youngeſt Son, their great Purpoſe ſeemed in a fair Road of Succeſs. As they had the royal Ear, they did not fail to avail themſelves accordingly; and a Diviſion in the Diadelohim's Family was the Event.

"The Clareth was every where diſcountenanced, within the Circle of the Bootiſalian Influence.— If an Act of Popularity preſented itſelf, and which, in right of Honour, was the due Performance of the Clareth; it was ſure to be ſnatched from him, and conferred on the Perſon they thought fit to make his Rival, the young Ariſh of the Cimbri. When the civil Commotion (before hinted at) had been ſuffered to harraſs the Land many Months together, becauſe it ſerved the private Intereſts of the Bootiſali, tho' it might have been ſuppreſſed in as few Days; I ſay, at this Time of impending Danger, tho' the Clareth thought it his Province to defend that Crown he was one day to wear, and accordingly requeſted the Command of the Expedition; yet, covering their Denial with a feigned Zeal for the Safety of his Perſon, they ſent the younger Brow to be decked with thoſe Laurels, with which the Intereſts and the Wiſhes of the Coralbani would gladly have adorned the elder; at the ſame Time induſtriouſly giving out, it was not the Act of their Advice, but of the Diadelohim's Choice. Theſe were the hopeful Meaſures of aſpiring Treaſon!

"Upon this the affronted Clareth ſeldom went to that Court which ſeemed in the Poſſeſſion of his Enemies. His filial Duty was nevertheleſs inviolable; and he only regretted that paternal Deluſion which admitted the Boſom-Confidence of ſuch evil Counſellors. Nor was he much ſurprized (however offended) at the general Diſreſpect they paid him; ſince they had even dared to inſult his forgiving Father, when a fatal Neceſſity ſecured them, not only from their due Puniſhment, but even continued them in the quiet Enjoyment of ill-acquired and unequal Power.

"The young Ariſh, tho' of royal * * *

Freedom, and jealous of Defigns againſt it. Spies they knew were Implements of Information, and therefore Spies were employed. Theſe were ſure firſt to watch, and then under colourable Pretences to mix among, the Parties of private Levees. By this Means, theſe Patriot Agents learned Certainties to confirm the Suſpicions of their Employers.—They diſcovered an intended grand Aſſignation of the Bootiſali, which was to be held at Midnight at the Houſe of the Odalphai, the Name of the two principal Conſpirators.

"Every thing was prepared againſt the appointed Time: The Conſpirators aſſemble: The Phaepatri, diligent to avert, had brought the Diadelohim to bear Witneſs to, the Machinations of Treaſon.—Leaving a ſufficient Guard inſtructed at a proper Diſtance, they aſſumed the Habit and Manners of ſome of the abſent Traitors, and gained Admittance. The abuſed Diadelohim, whoſe Incredulity had almoſt prevented his coming, could ſcarcely believe himſelf awake. He ſaw, he heard, he felt. Theſe were Teſtimonies beyond Sceptiſm; and therefore, after learning from the Haranguer, the wicked Purpoſe of their Meeting, which was the Eſtabliſhment of themſelves in a deſpotic Government after the Overthrow of the preſent Conſtitution; I ſay, the Diadelohim, after ſome Amazement at the Atrocity of his imagined Friends, dropt his Diſguiſe, and drew his Sword:—The Villains were petrify'd in Aſtoniſhment!—But this Intrepidity of the Diadelohim was a little premature. A Traitor, more perfect in Character than the reſt, aimed the deſtined Blow: But one of the faithful Phaepatri, warded the Stroke, and ſent the Striker to his native Hell.

"At this Criſis ruſhed in the Guards! But that Magnanimity of Soul which diſdained Fear, abhorred Cruelty. He reſtrained the Fury of the Soldiers, and reſerved the daſtard Delinquents to the Puniſhment of the Laws."

Thus ended the Uſurpation of the Bootiſali. If any People apprehend like Attacks of ill-judged Ambition, it will become them to behave like the Phaepatri of Coralbans. The ſmall Compaſs I had taken to tranſcribe the Story in, obliged me to mangle the Manuſcript more than the Humanity of a good-natured Copier would otherwiſe have permitted, as the judicious Reader will perceive in many Inſtances, beſides the defective Account of the Brother-Princes.

THO' the following Letter has been publiſhed before in other Papers, and therefore diſqualified from appearing in this; yet as it's Purpoſe is to defend honeſt Induſtry from Oppreſſion, and its Effects intimately concerned with the Inland Trade of Old England, every other Conſideration ſhall give Place to ſo laudable a Deſign, which the more public it is made, the more effectual will be its Operation.

To the AUTHOR.

SIR,

IT gives me great Pleaſure (and I believe it does to all who wiſh well to Trade) to ſee Numbers of Waggons on the Roads carrying the Manufacturers Goods from the interior Parts of the Kingdom, either for Home Conſumption, or Exportation to Foreign Markets, the uſe of which, long Experience has fully evinced; ſo that it appears to me, that every attempt to make the Owners of Waggons and other Carriages uneaſy in the Occupation of their Buſineſs, very hurtful to the Public. As to the Acts of Parliament that have paſſed for the regulating common Carriers, in reſpect to Weight they ſhall carry, and Number of Horſes they ſhall employ, they were enacted upon laudable and juſt Grounds, and nothing but the public Intereſt conſulted when they were made; yet I obſerve from the Papers, that there is a Deſign on foot to obtain another Act, under Title, or ſomething like the Title, of better preſerving the Turnpike Roads.

Now as to myſelf, upon reading the Title of the Bill, I though it only tended to preſerve the Turnpikes or the Roads from being hurt by indirect Means, ſuch as neglecting to keep them properly repaired as the Law directs; but, upon Inquiry, find it quite otherwiſe: For I am aſſured it's chief End is, to compel common Carriers to draw with leſs than ſix Horſes, and to oblige certain Turnpikes to erect Engines for weighing their Carriages ſo as to prevent the Carriers from carrying more than ſixty hundred Weight, of which laſt Proviſion I cannot ſee the Meaning; for I believe ſcarce a Man in Britain will ſay, that leſs than ſix Horſes can draw ſixty hundred Weight, for any Continuance of Time, in ſeveral parts of the Kingdom. If that is allowed, and ſhould the Carrier be reſtrained to draw with ſo ſmall a Number as four Horſes, they cannot conveniently carry above forty hundred Weight. And as the Carrier can make no more Journeys in a Week than he does now, will it not be prejudicial to Commerce, ſeeing there cannot be brought to Market ſo much by near one-third in the Time as before? And being thus prevented from carrying the Quantity of Goods as he could with ſix Horſes, will he not be obliged to raiſe his Price, in order to make himſelf amends for the Injury he will ſuffer by ſuch new Regulation? If that ſhould be the Caſe, pray who is to pay it? The Manufacturer! And how is he to be repaid? By raiſing the Price of his Goods! which will, in three Articles, greatly hurt Trade. Firſt, Large Quantities of Goods will be the longer before they can be brought to Market: Second, They muſt of Courſe be ſold dearer. Third, Our Rivals in Trade will be enabled thereby to underſell us, and ſo, by Degrees, cut us out from the Sale Abroad of ſeveral very valuable Branches of our own Manufactory.*

And pray why muſt this be done? Truly to pleaſe a la mode Gentlemen, who are at Times interrupted in their travelling by meeting heavy loaded Waggons that cauſe them to turn out of the Road. To be ſure, this is very grating; and to remedy what at moſt is only a ſlight Inconvenience to their Honours they will lay a heavy Grievance on the poor labouring Trader: They will aboliſh thoſe ugly covered Waggons, will oblige Carriers to the uſe of lighter Machines, † and direct the Form of theſe Machines themſelves.——It muſt be allowed, they have good Heads at Contrivance; for as the Good of the trading Inland Intereſt is not the Conſideration, and if this Project takes Place, theſe fine Gentlemen will have freer Liberty to ſleep and loll at their Eaſe, as they are travelling in their Coaches and Chariots thro' different Parts of the Country, without fear of being ſo often jolted, or, perhaps, frightened, as they uſed to be, by giving way to theſe old faſhioned Things, Tilted Waggons: Tho' poſſibly many of their worthy Anceſtors, as well as ſome of their Worſhips, at their firſt ſetting out in the World,—were glad of a Paſſage to London in ſome of them.

But far otherwiſe was the Diſpoſition of our late moſt excellent Queen Caroline, who, upon many Occaſions expreſſed her Royal Zeal for encouraging the Trade and Manufactory of this Kingdom, particularly in not ſuffering the Waggoners to be interrupted in paſſing the Road. An Inſtance,—Her Majeſty going from Kenſington to Kew Ferry, was met by a Country Waggon heavy loaded; the Guards directed the Waggoner to turn out of the Road, which her Majeſty perceiving, was graciouſly pleaſed to order them to deſiſt, and directed the Man to proceed, expreſſing, (at the ſame Time) as I have been informed, that ſhe would not, upon any Account ſuffer thoſe Perſons ſo be interrupted that were ſo uſefully employed. A glorious Example this! and ſhews that her Majeſty much more regarded the Benefit of the Subject, than that of her own Eaſe. A Memento ſufficient, one would think, to deter Gentlemen from throwing (if I may term it) Stumbling Blocks in the Carriers Way: For if what has been lately propoſed ſhould ſucceed, the Carriers will be much injured, and Trade greatly detrimented, by rendering the carrying it on more and more precarious and expenſive.

However it is ſtill to be hoped, that the Advocates for the Bill will fail in their Attempts, which will give an infinite Pleaſure to many loyal Subjects, but to none more than,

SIR,

Bromley in Kent, Your conſtant Reader,
June 12, 1751, And humble Servant,
A FREEHOLDER.

* It is believed, if the Cities, Market-Towns, and large Villages in Great Britain, were fully appriſed of the Purport of the Bill to be paſſed, there would not be leſs than 2000 Petitions againſt it.

† It is hoped, not French Machines!—A certain great Man thus expreſſed himſelf in a Matter that concerned the Liberty of the Subject, in Oppoſition to Foreign Schemes: "Tho' the French have in ſome Meaſure given us the Language and Faſhions, I hope they will never be able to impoſe on us their Laws."

Another great Man, in Oppoſition to ſome who were endeavouring to lay new Hardſhips on particular Trades, ſaid: "I cannot ſtand by to ſee what ſome are endeavouring to get paſſed into a Law, without declaring againſt this new Project; for I had rather beg my Bread from Door to Door, than ſee my Country ſuffer, i. e. The Traders injured."

In the Road Act there is the following good Clauſe: That if any Carman, Driver, Waggoner or other Driver, ride upon their Carriages, unleſs there is another Perſon to lead the Horſes, they forfeit Ten Shillings, the Maſter or Owner forfeits Twenty Shilling, and any Perſon may take them before a Magiſtrate; and if any attempt their Reſcue, they forfeit Twenty Shillings.

Orders are given for his Majeſty's Sandle Horſe and Furniture to be in Readineſs, his Majeſty intending to take the Exerciſe of Riding this ſummer, with his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales and Prince Edward.

Thurſday Morning early a Butcher for a conſiderable Wager, ran four Miles and a half in 25 Minutes in upper Moorfields; and won by 13 Minutes, being allowed 40 to do it in.

Laſt Tueſday Evening, about Eleven o'Clock Mr. Farqueis, Clerk to Rigail, a Merchant in Bell Alley, Coleman-ſtreet, was robbed and murdered by ſome Villains, in the Road leading from Windmill Hill to the Barking Dogs. He had been to ſee Mr. Farquies (his Uncle) who keeps the Academy near the Alms-Houſes at Hoxton, and on his Return home met with this unhappy Accident. He received three Wounds in his Body, ſuppoſed to be done with a Kniſe, one in the Left Breaſt, which reached his Heart, another on the Left Side below the Navel, and the third in the upper Part of his Right Side, beſides a large Cut behind his Right Ear, and his Skull fractured in a very terrible Manner, ſuppoſed to be done by a Stick. They took from him a Watch, but what Money is unknown. A Caſe was found in his Pocket, in which was a Bank Note of 100l. and laſt Wedneſday Night a Jury ſat on the Body at Finſbury Watch-Houſe, who brought in their Verdict Wilful Murder againſt Perſons unknown.

Wedneſday one Batto a Doll-maker, was taken up on ſuſpicion of the ſaid Murder and Robbery, on Occaſion of his imprudently ſaying, he had ſome of the young Gentleman's Blood on his Cloaths, which being obſerved, he was taken into Cuſtody and carried before the Juſtices at the Swan in Shoreditch, where, after an Examination of four Hours, he was diſcharged, it appearing that he aſſiſted the Undertaker in putting this Gentleman into his Shell, and carrying him to the Watch-houſe.

Wedneſday the Report of the Maleſactors under Sentence of Death in Newgate, was made to his Majeſty by Richard Adams, Eſq; Recorder of the City, when the eight following were ordered for executed on Monday next, viz.

Edward Ward, for breaking the Dwelling Houſe of Miles Childerry, at Hackney.

Joſeph Peacock, for robbing Mr. Coulſon of a Gold Watch in the Fleet Market.

William Hatton for a Burglary. And,

Robert Damſell, for a Robbery on the Highway near Hounſlow.

His Majeſty was pleaſed to pardon Capt. Henry Byton for Forgery, and Gerrard Bunn, for robbing Frederick Benſon; and to reprieve for Tranſportation for Life, Philip Gibſon, for a Street Robbery.

The Report of Michael Levy, for Sodomy, was ſuſpended.

From Maryland we hear, that a Convict Servant, about three Weeks since, went into his Master's House, with an Ax in his Hand, determined to kill his Mistress; but changing his Purpose, on seeing, as he expressed it, how d——n Innocent she looked, he laid his Hand on a Block, cut it off and threw it at her saying, Now make me work if you can. It is said this desperate Villain is now begging in Pensylvania, and pretends to have lost his Hand by an Accident.

They write from New York, that a horrid Murder was committed at Elk Ridge, by Jeremiah Swift, a Convict Servant of Mr. John Hatherley's, about 21 Years of Age. While himself and Wife were gone to a Funeral, this Wretch quarrelled with two Boys in the Field, both Mr. Hatherley's Sons, one about 11, the other about nine Years of Age, and with a Hoe knocked one of their Brains out, and killed him on the Spot; the other he knocked down and left for dead, but 'tis hoped he may recover; after that he went to the House, and murdered Mr. Hatherley's Daughter, about fourteen or fifteen Years of Age, as is supposed with an Ax, for she was very much mangled. Three small Children he left unhurt. He then ran away but was soon taken, and committed to Jail, and confessed the Facts.

By private Letters from Dresden we learn, that the French Ministry are labouring to defeat the British Minister's Negociations at that Court; Overtures being actually made for renewing the Treaty concluded some Years ago between their Most Christian and polish Majesties, upon Terms very advantageous to the latter.

Mr. Keith perceiving by the News-Papers, it has been artfully insinuated, that his Chapel in May-fair is removed lower down, this is to satisfy the Public, that the Chapel set up in the Sun Tavern One Pair of Stairs, is not Mr. Keith's; but Mr. Keith's Chapel continues where it was before, namely, within Ten Yards of the Great Chapel, where the Marriages are performed by a regular Clergyman for a Guinea as usual, with a Licence on a Five Shilling Stamp, and Certificate.

An immediate and never-failing Cure for DEAFNESS, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation, the most excellent Medicine for this Purpose that ever was known, far exceeding all Things ever yet published, or made Use of; its Virtues are beyond Expression, and cannot be truly known but by Experience: Words come short of its just Praise.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an instant Cure for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, from what Cause soever, or of ever so long standing, having cur'd vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes and all Ages, that have been in a Manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines, external and internal, by Advice, and also by Publication have fail'd, with the greatest Ease and Safety, and to their utmost Satisfaction and Wonder; for

In a peculiar Manner, it strengthens, softens and loosens the Drum of the Ear, which by being dry'd or shrivell'd, is often the first and chief Cause of every Complaint of want of Hearing, or of Noise or Pain in the Ears, &c to remedy all which, this noble Medicine is a true Specifick that never fails perfectly to cure all possibly curable Cases, after all other Means and Medicines have utterly fail'd, which is more than can be said of any other Thing in the whole World besides itself: Any Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by congeal'd Matter in the Ears, it instantly cures.

It is sold for 3 s. 6d each Bottle, by the Author's special Appointment, (Mr Richards being dead) by Mrs. Stephens, a Milliner, at the Sign of the Blue Ball, near the Middle Temple Gate in Fleet street; and no where else in England.

The uncommon Success above Forty Years last past, of the so much-famed and only true Original

Royal Chymical WASH-BALL,

FOR beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands, hath induced many envious Persons, not only in every Part of London, but in many Places in the Country to sell a counterfeit white Ball, (which may prove prejudicial as well as ineffectual) in Imitation of the true one.

To prevent as much as possible any Mistakes in Prejudice to our Customers, we give this special Notice, That the true Sort are now sold only by Mrs Wharton, a Milliner, at the Sign of the Bluecoat Boy, and Fan, near the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, and by Mrs. Stephens a Milliner at the Sign of the Blue Ball near the Middle Temple Gate in Fleetstreet. Price 1 s. each Ball, or 12 to the Dezen; but no Allowance for less than 12 Balls at a Time, nor will they ever be sold any where else, except Notice be first given in these Advertisements of it.

Their true and real Virtues have been sufficiently attested in all the Years that they have been sold by Publication, and the more so, as they are still more than ever used and admired by both Sexes of the best Quality, and many Thousands of Gentry and others, for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parellel'd by any Wash or Washballs, or any Kind of Form; for these Balls are indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ringworms, Morphew, Sun burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness of the Small Pox, and keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness; they soon alter red or rough Hands, are admirable in shaving the Head, not only giving a most exquisite Sharpness to the Razor, but so comfort the Brain and Nerves as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Smell, without the least Grain of Mercury, and may be eaten for their Safety.

BANKRUPTS.

As also the SIXTH EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to it, both of them Revised and enlarged, and now printed together in One Volume.

And as the several Passages in the former Impressions, that have been charged with being obscure and ambiguous, are in these cleared up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

These Editions contain some further and surprizing Instances of the Mischiefs by that filthy, sinful Commerce with ones self, which is so notoriously practised, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weak'ning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inserted, shew.

And, amongst others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Answer to it, concerning the Use and Abuse of the Marriage-Bed; together with divers Casuistical and other Letters from both Sexes, of some secret unnatural Effeminacies, necessary to be known both by the married and single of each Sex

To which is added,

A Curious PIECE translated out of the Latin, from L. S. SCHMEDIER, as it is inserted in the Acta Lipsiensia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Mass of Blood; well worth the Perusal of Physicians, Surgeons, Anatomists, and all others of Art and Curiosity.

As also Dr. QUINCY's Translation of Dr. CARR's remarkable Answer to a Letter sent by a Divine, concerning two Nuns in Rome, reported to have changed their Sex.

Likewise Dr. DRAKE's and several other Physicians Opinions of Hermaphrodites, and Women brought to a Resemblance of them, by the Practice of Self-Pollution, as was the Case of a young Lady of 18, whose well-wrote Letter to the Author, describing and lamenting her Condition, is (in order to deter others) inserted.

A very grave and learned Divine and Physician having perused this Discourse, before it went to the Press, returned it with his Opinion of it in these Words.

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, 'of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profession, or Condition 'soever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed against in it."

Is now sold (Mr ISTED, Bookseller, at the Golden Ball, in Fleetstreet being dead) by CHARLES CORBETT, Bookseller, at Addison's Head, opposite St. Dunstan's Church, Fleetstreet, and by HARRY COOK under the Royal Exchange. Price Bound 3 s. 6 d.

N. B. The Medicines mentioned in this Book are sold as above.

The most wonderful cleansing and strengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weaknesses and Imbecilities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miscarriages in Women; and to cleanse and strengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained such Repute, that near 30000 Bottles have been sold since April 1734, that they were first publish'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the abovesaid Disorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicines were prescrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obstinate Gleet and Weakness, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harrass'd with Electuaries, Bolusses, Pills, Potions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Prescription (which he has still upon his File) has made Use of them ever since to Numbers of People in the very worst of Gleets, seminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Disorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c. with the utmost Success and Safety; as also in all Weaknesses from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, excessive Coition, Self Pollution, seminal Emissions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Cases thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of so divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s. 6 d. each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more especially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the most draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weaknesses of the Seminals and Genitals, as also of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleansing and healing, or a more strengthening and invigorate ing Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impoteney, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will say, by their soon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards restoring in these Weaknesses than any others can in ten, and is of so corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapse, even in the tendereft Constitutions, which can hardly be said of any other Medicine; and it is withal so elegantly pleasant to the Palate, and so agreeable to the Stomach that the nicest Person is delighted with it.

Mr. West, Goldsmith, who us'd to sell these Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son-in Law, Mr. Johnson, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-street, near Clare-Market, sealed up, with Directions, for any Messenger upon asking 8 ly for a Bottle of Drops and paying 3 s 6 d.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperate Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunctions or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only appolite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and effectual Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulnesses of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, This Grand Anti-Siphylicon is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters answer'd, unless Post-paid.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY and all Scorbutic Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without a sensible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

To the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, dost once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them for Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Botches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings-out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearances, they effectually and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diseases.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reflorative, strengthen and open the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Pots in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and thereby immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as remedying the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities offend the Nerves, and by Consent of Parts affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other almost innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their sharpest Paroxysms, these famed and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free and chearful Spirite, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves to that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them: be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle with Directions at large.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO destructive to the Constitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Moisture or very Essence of Life, and inducing Consumptions, Nervous Disorders, &c. but to Posterity also, inasmuch as those afflicted with such Gleetings, if not wholy disabled, as very many are, from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miserable, and short-liv'd Issue.

These wasting Gleetings, occasion'd by Self-pollution, excessive Venery, severe Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almost all Physicians and Surgeons to be so very difficult to overcome, are now so certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Restrictive Balsamick Electuary, that no one, how bad soever, need despair of being entirely set to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its most extraordinary Efficacy, that so many Practitioners in Town and Country now send for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only sure and infallible Remedy that can be safely rely'd upon in those Cases. The Price of this Grand Medicine is 6s. a Pot, seal'd up, with a Book of Instructions, highly necessary to be read by all Persons whoever were afflicted with any Disorder of the Seminal Vessels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, This fam'd Balsamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceased) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles against the East-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balsamic Electuary. No Letters answer'd unless Post-paid.

To Persons of either Sex,

Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success even to an infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon finds all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more, and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wished for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, accentuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralitick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.
